

iPad Learning Survey

Directions: Circle the answers that best describe your feelings. At the bottom, write down some of our thoughts about working with the iPads.

1) Before we began this project, had you used iPads very much or were you very comfortable with them?

Never used/
Not comfortable Used a little/
Not very comfortable Used some/
Pretty comfortable Used a lot/
Very comfortable

2) Now that we've been using the iPads for several weeks, how comfortable do you feel with them?

Never used/
Not comfortable Used a little/
Not very comfortable Used some/
Pretty comfortable Used a lot/
Very comfortable

3) How do you think the iPads can be useful for improving your reading, speaking, listening, and writing?
(circle as many as you think are true)

a. Recording/Listening to myself speaking

b. Typing stories/reports

c. Creating visual stories with VoiceThread

d. Looking up information online

e. Reading materials on the iPad (books, stories classmates have written)

f. Listening to stories online

g. Using software that writes down what I say (like Dragon Dictation)

h. Other: TYPING

4) What are some things we have done with the iPads in the classroom that you have enjoyed or that have helped you learn?

Typing stories

5) What are some things we have done with the iPads in the classroom that you have NOT enjoyed or that have NOT helped you learn?

Looking up info

6) Is there anything we have not yet done with the iPads that you want to do?

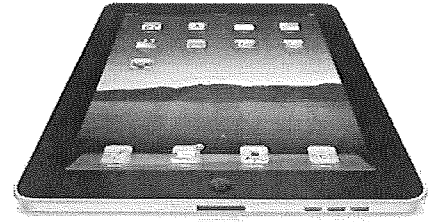

all the apps tho on iPad

all use the iPad

7) Any other comments about using the iPads:

didn't not put to the people

iPad Learning Survey

Directions: Circle the answers that best describe your feelings. At the bottom, write down some of our thoughts about working with the iPads.

1) Before we began this project, had you used iPads very much or were you very comfortable with them?

Never used/
Not comfortable Used a little/
Not very comfortable Used some/
Pretty comfortable Used a lot/
Very comfortable

2) Now that we've been using the iPads for several weeks, how comfortable do you feel with them?

Never used/
Not comfortable Used a little/
Not very comfortable Used some/
Pretty comfortable Used a lot/
Very comfortable

3) How do you think the iPads can be useful for improving your reading, speaking, listening, and writing? (circle as many as you think are true)

- a. Recording/Listening to myself speaking
- b. Typing stories/reports
- c. Creating visual stories with VoiceThread
- d. Looking up information online
- e. Reading materials on the iPad (books, stories classmates have written)
- f. Listening to stories online
- g. Using software that writes down what I say (like Dragon Dictation)
- f. Other: RTI/ES/AY

4) What are some things we have done with the iPads in the classroom that you have enjoyed or that have helped you learn?

Typing stories

5) What are some things we have done with the iPads in the classroom that you have NOT enjoyed or that have NOT helped you learn?

Creating visual

6) Is there anything we have not yet done with the iPads that you want to do?

do a test

7) Any other comments about using the iPads:

can we play with it sometimes